Director, Research Program

U.S. Poultry & Egg Association (USPOULTRY) is searching for a Director, Research Program, to manage its $1 million annual grant budget focused on applied research for the poultry and egg industry. Selected candidate will work with a volunteer committee of industry experts to solicit and prioritize research projects and present for funding to the Boards of USPOULTRY and its Foundation. Further, the candidate will serve as a technical resource to the organization, the industry and media.

Candidate shall have a DVM or Ph.D. in a field related to commercial poultry and egg production and 10 years of experience working in the poultry/egg industry. The full-time position will start after July 1, 2019, and will be based in USPOULTRY's offices in Tucker, Georgia, in metro Atlanta. The position requires excellent written and oral communication skills. Applicants should submit a one-page description of an applied research topic they believe is important for the poultry and egg industry. Qualified individuals should also submit resume and/or CV by Feb. 28, 2019, to Director, Research Program, U.S. Poultry & Egg Association, 1530 Cooledge Road, Tucker, GA 30084 or ResearchDirector@uspoultry.org.
